Lloyd's Column

That Cheerful Friend
When all the world seems kind o' wrong,
And things ain't goin' right,
And when you've got the blues so bad,
You'd most give up the fight,
Your cheerful friend comes down the street;
His features seem to shine;
He greets you with these words: "By George,
Old chap, you're lookin' fine!"
You've simply got to tone up then,
No matter how you feel;
The world takes on a different look;
A smile begins to steal
Across your beaming countenance;
The very air is wine;
You pass on with the knowledge that
"By George, you're lookin' fine!"
You soon forget your aches an' pains;
It puts you back in tune;
If there's any better tonic,
It would be earth's greatest boon—
The friend who slaps you on the back
With gusto half divine,
And says to you, "By George, old chap,
You're lookin' simply fine!"

Worth a Discount

At a certain church it was the custom for the clergyman to kiss the bride after the marriage ceremony. A young lady who was about to be married in the church did not relish the prospect, and instructed her prospective husband, when making arrangements, to tell the clergyman she did not wish him to kiss her. The young bridegroom did as directed.
"Well, George," said the young lady, when he appeared, "did you tell the clergyman that I did not wish him to kiss me?"
"Yes."
"And what did he say?"
"He said that in that case he would charge only half the usual fee."

Up to Them

Little James, aged six, had been taught to pray each night for all his relatives and friends, and consequently the list had grown quite large. So one night when it came time for the customary prayers he refused to say them.
"Well, well, James!" said his mother. "Why won't you say them? All good little boys say their prayers."
"Yes, but I'm too tired."
"Oh, my, that's no excuse. Come now, that's a good boy."
"Well," relented James, "I guess I'll have to. But, anyhow, I'm not going to pray for everybody. I'm going to cut a lot of 'em out. Some of 'em will have to save themselves."—Harper's Magazine.

Evading the Basket

Oh, Editor! with yawning basket,
This little favor, let me ask it.
Consider, if 'twould be the thing
To take this little gem I bring—
One that's quite worthy of a basket,
And throw it in that selfsame basket.
I've heard of throwing pearls to swine,
And offering Willie Bryan wine;
But if you do that basket stunt,
My feelings you will much affront.
—F. B. T.

Ask Us a Hard One

A Sunday school teacher had been telling her class of little boys about crowns of glory and heavenly rewards for good people.
"Now, tell me," she said, at the close of the lesson, "who will get the biggest crown?"
There was silence for a minute or two, then a bright little chap piped out:
"Him 'wat's got th' biggest 'ead."

Just the Difference

The manager of a great shop was showing his admiring friend around.
"How can your assistants tell when a woman is really a purchaser or only shopping?" asked the latter.
"That's simple," replied the manager. "If they ask for something cheaper, they want to buy; when they're shopping they usually say: 'Haven't you this in a better quality?'"

His Answer

Last summer a smart innkeeper returned a number of broken beer bottles to his brewery, and asked to be allowed for them, as they had been "burst by the sun."
The manager examined the corks, and this is a copy of his reply:
"Dear Sir: We'll stand the loss if you'll tell us who lent Old Sol the corksew."

Just the Thing

"Isn't that a Bouguereau?" asked Mrs. Malaprop as they stopped for a moment to look at the new pictures.
"Oh, my, no," replied her hostess; "it's a lion. But I told Josiah when he brought it home that it looked a good deal more like one of them things you mention."

An Insidious Lobbyist

"That man must be an insidious lobbyist," declared a Congressman Grump.
"What has he done?" inquired Congressman Wayback.
"He invited me to share a bottle of grape juice with him."—Pittsburgh Post.

Nothing Worth While

"Did you find anything in that house?" asked the footpad.
"Nothing worth while," answered the burglar. "But it's bad luck to come away empty-handed, so I brought along the watchdog and a lot of burglar-alarm apparatus."—Washington Star.

A Helper

Smith—Goldmore is a very generous old fellow. Do you know, he's always helping somebody out.
Jones (sady)—Yes, I know. I went to see his daughter the other night and he helped me out, too!

Between Friends

A country editor wrote: "Brother, don't stop your paper just because you don't agree with the editor. The last cabbage you sent us didn't agree with us either, but we didn't drop you from our subscription list on that account."—Boston Transcript.

Cause for Dislike

"I don't like that man."
"Don't like him? Why, my dear fellow, you don't know him!"
"That's why I don't like him. He refuses to meet me."

WHEN YOU GO TO DENVER

You Can Find Modern Accommodations, at Moderate Price Hotel, Conveniently Located

In visiting a city of hotels, such as Denver is, one is sometimes at a loss to know where to put up. Few people care to stop at some of the bump places that have out a hotel sign, and yet most of us prefer to not pay extravagant prices for hotel accommodations.

To those who wish to find a moderate price hotel, with modern conveniences, well located, Hotel Midland, at Seventeenth and Arapahoe streets, will be quite acceptable. It is only a few blocks up Seventeenth street from Union Station, and yet it is near the business center of the city.

Hotel Midland is conducted on the European plan, guests pay for their rooms only, getting their meals elsewhere. There are good restaurants and cafes nearby. The rates at the Midland are low, considering the fine location and good accommodations. Well furnished, steam heated rooms, with clean, comfortable beds, and privilege of bath, may be had at 75 cents and one dollar per day; room with private bath, $1.50 per day. 7-41-1159.

Corn Varieties in Western Nebraska

Preliminary results from variety tests of corn conducted at the North Platte and Mitchell as well as other experimental stations seem to indicate that U. S. Selection 133, a yellow dent corn; Marten's white dent; and White Australian are varieties which are well adapted to this part of the Great Plains area and good varieties for western Nebraska conditions. The White Australian variety, which is a flint corn, is pointed out as being deserving of further trials, especially where corn for hogging off is desired. Of the varieties tested, the medium early seems superior to the very early or to the late ones.

ONE WEAK SPOT

Many Alliance People Have a Weak Part—Too Often It's the Back
Many people have a weak spot. Too often it's a bad back. Twinges follow every sudden twist. Gull achin; keeps up, day and night. Backache is often from weak kidneys. In such cases a kidney medicine is needed. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys. For backache and urinary ills. Good proof of merit in the following statement.

Mrs. Thomas O'Neal, S. King St., Chadron, Neb., says: "I had more or less trouble from my kidneys for several years. I suffered severely from an attack of lumbago. My back became very lame and painful and I felt tired and languid nearly all the time. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and I began using them. I was soon freed from the annoyance."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. O'Neal had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv—Feb 3-10

PERU NORMAL NOTES

The second semester began Monday, January 24, the work continuing without any interruption between semesters. Registration had been almost completed one week in advance. About thirty-five new students have enrolled this semester.

A normal bulletin has just come from the press which is given over to some outline courses in botany by Professor Jean and some suggested nature study material and its treatment by Professor B. C. Hendricks. This bulletin will be mailed to any school expressing a wish for same if the request is accompanied by postage.

Two more basket ball games are scheduled for this week: Grand Island, February 2, and York, February 3, both of which promise to be interesting games.

Dean Mattie C. Ellis was called to Florida last Thursday by the serious illness of her mother.

The young men of the Men's Glee Club returned Saturday morning from their annual concert tour. They gave five concerts and report a very enjoyable week with good audiences and successful concerts. They were accompanied by Miss Meyer of the voice department, who contributed some solos, and Miss Grace Teich, who is their accompanist. The program includes the usual quota of lighter melodies and c. llege songs, but lays stress upon music that is really good. We are glad to note that we are to hear this Glee Club on Monday evening in their annual at-home concert.

Pres. Hayes attended a meeting of the county superintendents and other educators of the state in Lincoln last week. The meeting was called by State Superintendent Thomas for the purpose of discussing the needs of the country schools and means of meeting these needs.

On registering this semester students were charged a fifty-cent hospital fee, which is to be used in paying the wages of the school nurse. The board of education has rented a furnished cottage for her occupancy. The nurse will visit students and wait upon them in their rooms, and when circumstances warrant it patients will be removed to the infirmary. Miss Barclay began her duties in this capacity January 24 and at the present time there are two patients in the hospital who are suffering from tonsillitis.

Prof. S. C. Smith, head of the department of manual training, was called away Wednesday to attend the funeral of a brother.

Dean E. L. Rouse was in Kearney last week, where he addressed the city teachers' institute.

The people of Peru had the privilege of listening Monday evening to Dr. Edw. Steiner of Iowa College in one of his stirring patriotic addresses. Dr. Steiner is the greatest authority on immigration in America and is the author of "The Trail of the Immigrant", "The Spirit of Americanism", and other like books.

Miss Susan Harmon of the English department has been granted a leave of absence for the current semester and left Saturday for Lincoln where she will enter the University and do some advanced work in English.

LEARN SCIENTIFIC FARMING

More money is wasted by not knowing HOW to farm than is lost by the ravages of fires and floods. EXPERIENCE is a GOOD TEACHER, but he charges a mighty stiff tuition fee.

If you are farming or thinking of farming, why not learn the farming game as you would any other business game? If you have not the time or think you are too old to spend two or three years in an agricultural college, take a course in the Campbell Correspondence School of Soil Culture and learn the principles and practices of SCIENTIFIC FARMING. You don't have to leave home—just use your SPARE TIME that otherwise would be frittered away.

The West is full of opportunities for the man who knows the farming game for a scientific standpoint.

You know all about BURBANK, and you have heard of CAMPBELL, the great soil wizard. You can learn what he has learned and in much less time.

Send for our CATALOG NUMBER FOUR and a copy of CAMPBELL'S SCIENTIFIC FARMER. If you are looking for AGRICULTURAL INFORMATION you will find what you want.

PLEASANT HILL NOTES

Mrs. I. E. Barritt has been on the sick list the last week.

E. Abley and son Dale were callers at C. Hansen's, Sunday.

Winnie Warn spent Sunday and Monday with home folks.

P. K. Christensen and wife came home from Alliance Saturday.

J. P. and P. K. Christensen and J. Jaspersen were in Hemingford Tuesday on business.

Hans Hansen left Saturday for Blair, Neb., where he will visit relatives and friends.

Clara Christensen, who has been working for T. A. Green's the past month, returned home Sunday.

Bryan Christensen is spending a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. K. M. Christensen, this week.

Mrs. Jim Best and son Hugh, Mrs. Curry and son, and Miss Bessie Connors spent Sunday at T. A. Green's.

Albert and George Roth, Dick Freese, Ejner Christensen, Ella Moravek and Carl Hennings attended the dance at the old Tschacher place Saturday night.

Alliance People Get Instant Action

Those who have used it in Alliance are astonished at the INSTANT action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. Because it acts on BOTH lower and upper bowel, ONE SPOONFUL Adler-i-ka relieves almost ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas. It moves such surprising foul matter that a few doses often relieve or prevent appendicitis. A short treatment helps chronic stomach trouble. Harry Thiele, Druggist. A v—G-2

The Bell Engineering Staff

Working out complex scientific and engineering problems, the Bell Telephone System has a general staff of more than 500 technical, electrical and mechanical experts.

Most, if not all, the telephone instrumentalities that have led to improvement in telephone service in the world were either evolved by, or adopted and developed by, this staff.

The Bell System's general engineering staff includes a greater number of scientific, technical and mechanical experts of a higher grade than can be found in all the other government or private telephone administrations in the world combined.

By means of this centralized general staff the Bell System is able to keep in advance of the telephone art, avoid repetition and duplication of work, and give each Associated Company in the System expert advice and expert assistance.

The cost of this work is large, but it is spread over a vast system and the cost to each community is very small. The expense has been warranted a hundred fold by results. It has enabled the Bell System to give the best and the cheapest telephone service in the world.
